

NOTICE/ RESTRICT VISITATION/PARENTING TIME

Any request for an emergency order to restrict, limit, or suspend visitation/parenting time must be filed at the same time as a motion to restrict, limit, or suspend visitation/parenting time.

Per order of the court, the court will not consider any requests for emergency orders to restrict, limit, or suspend visitation/parenting time unless one of the following criteria is met:

The person requesting the order has been given physical care of the child by the Butler County Department of Job & Family Services (Children Services) and has attached a copy of the Safety Plan put in place by Children Services which restricts, limits, or suspends visitation/parenting time for another person, or,

The person requesting the order:

- Alleges that the child is in imminent risk of physical harm (physical abuse);
- Has contacted Children Services regarding the allegations and;
- Has attached documentation verifying that Children Services is either investigating the allegations of physical abuse or, Children Services has already investigated those allegations and has found those allegations to be substantiated, or,

The person requesting the order:

- Alleges that the child is in imminent risk of sexual abuse;
- Has contacted Children Services regarding the allegations and;
- Has attached documentation verifying that Children Services is either investigating the allegations of sexual abuse or, Children Services has already investigated those allegations and has found those allegations to be substantiated, or,

The person alleges that the child is at imminent risk of harm and attaches a copy of a police report which indicates that law enforcement has acted to restrict, limit, or suspend visitation/parenting time of another person due to those allegations.

Terms and Conditions

The person using (hereinafter referred to as “the user”) the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court acknowledges and agrees by the use of said forms to the following terms and conditions without limitation.

1. Filing fees are not refundable. This is true even if court staff approves your filing and your case is dismissed for any reason.
2. The forms and information provided by the Juvenile Court are not legal advice and are not a substitute for legal advice. The user understands that these forms, information, and instructions are provided as a public service by the Butler County Juvenile Court. The user may use these forms and may represent himself or herself in court, however, the user acknowledges and understands that if he or she chooses to do so, the user proceeds at his or her own risk.

3. The user agrees to release and hold harmless The Butler County Commissioners, the Judges of the Butler County Juvenile Court, The Butler County Court of Common Pleas, The Butler County Juvenile Court, and all magistrates, administrators, employees, agents, assigns, or representatives of the aforementioned entities from any and all liability for any and all damages, injuries, or losses which might arise as a result of using the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court.
4. The user agrees that he or she will use the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court solely for his or her personal use. The user agrees that he or she will not provide, use, or prepare the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court to or for any other person, individual, or entity unless otherwise authorized by law. The user agrees, further, that he or she will not provide, use, or prepare the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court to assist any person, individual or entity in the unauthorized practice of law. The user agrees to indemnify and to hold harmless the Butler County Commissioners, the Judges of the Butler County Juvenile Court, The Butler County Court of Common Pleas, The Butler County Juvenile Court, and all magistrates, administrators, employees, agents, assigns, or representatives of the aforementioned entities regarding the use or dissemination of the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court.

The Butler County Juvenile Court does not and cannot warrant that any guidance or information provided in the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court or by the staff of the Butler County Juvenile Court will be accurate or ultimately acceptable by the court.
7. The user understands that even if the he or she uses and/or completes the forms provided by the Juvenile Court in full compliance with any and all instructions and information provided by the Juvenile Court or by the staff of the Juvenile Court, the court may not grant the relief that the user seeks. The user understands and acknowledges that such a denial of relief may, in whole or in part, be based upon defects in the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court or the staff of the Juvenile Court. The user understands and acknowledges that if the user has concerns regarding his or her legal situation, his or her legal rights, or his or her legal responsibilities that the user should not rely upon the forms, information, and instructions provided by the Juvenile Court or upon the information provided by the staff of the Juvenile Court. In such circumstances, the user understands and acknowledges that the user should consult with a qualified attorney.

8. Many documents made available by this court must be notarized. That means that the user must state that they are true under oath. If any person submits a material false statement on a notarized form that is presented to the court, this court has a duty to refer the matter to the criminal division of the office of the prosecuting attorney. If you make a false statement under oath you may be prosecuted for perjury. Perjury, under Ohio Law, is a felony.
